

Delivering an above average yield, while striving simultaneously for capital appreciation.

The income experience

This chart shows the quarterly historic yields for the last five years and our projected yields for the next four quarters to inform you what yield to expect from the Fund over the next year.

Source: FE Analytics and internal, C Inc units, 31/08/2020, *includes projected yield figures.

If you had invested £100,000 at launch on 13th April 2012, you would have received £41,417 in income (red line), and the capital would be worth £133,739. If you had reinvested all income, then the capital would be worth £183,281. We aim to grow the annual distribution (blue bar) each year in order to maintain an attractive distribution yield for new and existing investors.
